

THE LORD'S PRAYER

This is a TRUE translation of The Lord's Prayer direct from the language of Jesus (Aramaic) to present day English, unlike the old version we have, of Aramaic to Old Greek, to Latin, to Old English, to modern English.

This puts a new concept upon the meanings of the prayer.

O Birther! Divine androgynous parent of the Cosmos,	= Our Father who art in heaven.
Focus your light within us, make it useful,	= hallowed be thy name.
Create your reign of unity now,	= thy kingdom come.
Your one desire acts with ours,	= Thy will be done
As in all light, so in all forms,	= in earth as it is in heaven
Grant what we need each day in bread and insight,	= give us this day our daily bread
Loose the cords of mistakes binding us,	= and forgive us our trespasses
As we release the strands we hold of other's guilt,	= as we forgive those who trespass against us
Don't let surface things delude us,	= and lead us not in to temptation
But free us from what holds us back,	= but deliver us from evil
From you is born all ruling will, the power and the life to do, the song that beautifies all, from age to age it renews. Truly power to these statements, that may they be the ground from which all my actions grow amen,	= for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever amen.

Loosing the cords of mistakes that bind us is obviously referring to Karma.
