The Sunday called Pentecost (Whitsunday)

Red.

Intent - A Comforter

Candles Many.

The Collect

Grant us by your Holy Spirit to have right judgement in all things and rejoice in Holy Comfort; through the love of Christ our Master, who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the same spirit, one God, throughout ages of ages. Amen.

The Epistle for Whitsunday is from the writings of author Franz Bardon.

Only they who know the Masters of truth of the cosmos can speak of absolute truth and peace. No sincere adept will impose his will to force the truth to those who are not ready for it. At this point all of us will have to remember the words of the great Master Jesus "NEITHER CAST YOUR PEARLS BEFORE SWINE LEST THEY TRAMPLE THEM UNDER THEIR FEET". The Adept will therefore try to teach the person the advantage of learning the truths of the universe, thus ensuring great peace of mind for the learner. Thus the Adept becomes a comforter, bringing forth the truth of the guarantee of Jesus when he said, "BRETHREN I WILL NOT LEAVE YOU COMFORTLESS". But at no time did Jesus ever force comfort upon anyone, but never was comfort denied to those who ask for it.

Here Endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel for Whitsunday is from the Aquarian Gospel.

Jesus said, I will pray to the Father - God, and he will send another comforter to you, who will abide with you. This Comforter of God, the Holy Breath, is one with God, but she is one the world cannot receive because it sees her not; it knows her not. But you know her, and will know her because she will abide within your soul. I will not leave you desolate, but in The Christ, which is the love of God made manifest to humanity, I will be with you all the way.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
